

The Lone Sailor

The Lone Sailor represents the men and women who have served, are serving, or will serve in the Navy. He's called the Lone Sailor, yet he is hardly ever alone. He is about 25 years old, a senior second class petty officer who is fast becoming a sea-going veteran.

He has done it all – fired weapons in war, provided humanitarian assistance in far-away lands, been attacked by the enemy and defended our freedom. He has made liberty calls in great cities and tiny villages where he was a tourist, ambassador, adventurer, friend, missionary to those less fortunate and representative of our way of life.

United States Navy Memorial

Honor, Recognize, Celebrate & Inform

The United States Navy Memorial's mission is to Honor, Recognize, and Celebrate the men and women of the Sea Services, past, present, and future; and to Inform the public about their service.

Interactive & Thought-Provoking Exhibits

The Delbert D. Black National Chief's Mess pays tribute to the pivotal role of the rank of Chief Petty Officers. In 2024, we celebrated a significant milestone with the unveiling of newly renovated exhibits and the launch of a social networking platform exclusive to Navy and Coast Guard Chiefs.

The Arleigh & Roberta Burke Theatre

The Navy Memorial is home to the first LED wall in Washington, DC. Standing an impressive 17 feet tall and 34.5 feet wide, and made up of 9,123,840 pixels across the whole screen viewers are guaranteed exceptionally clean viewing. We offer versatile screen size capabilities to accommodate movie premieres, presentations, and visual background for your next in-person or virtual event.

Zumwalt: The Current that Brought the Navy to the Shores of the 20th Century chronicles the life and legacy of one of the Navy's most prolific Chief of Naval Operations.

The American Sailor: Agile, Capable, and Talented tells the story of the United States Navy and explores how individuals have defended the country and provided military services wherever the seas extend over time.
